

I urge to retain the rules governing current ownership. More media consolidation will lead to a dangerous situation that will only serve the private interests of corporations, not the public good. I hope your vote on Tuesday will reflect the will of the people and benefit the best interest of the public.